7. Milton Guide Update and Next Issue

Erik Johnson of Local Brew provided an update, stating that about 2500 guides have been distributed so far. Certain sources, including Huddy’s and The Painted Lady go through them quickly. In July/August, Local Brew will start onboarding again. This year, the cost to participate will be $149. They are planning for an October printing timeline; October/November for delivery. There was discussion about adding an option to be included on the website directory only to include more businesses that may not have brick and mortar locations. EDC members will document any thoughts about feedback on the first issue and the process and deliver thoughts to Erik.
